Awards Convo Makes Presentations to 55

Richman Is Appointed Music Head

Dr. Luther A. Richman, director of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, will become dean of the MSU School of Music August 1. Dr. Richman has been head of the Cincinnati conservatory and dean of its faculty since 1948. The school is operated under the auspices of the Cincinnati Institute of the Arts and is affiliated with the University of Cincinnati. It is devoted exclusively to music and allied arts. Its student symphony orchestra was featured for eight years over a national radio network. Dr. Richman visited the MSU campus early this spring. During his visit he expressed enthusiasm for the scope of work being done at the School of Music here. He praised specifically the a cappella choir, the symphony orchestra and the school's productions in the field of opera and operettas.

Choir, Orchestra in Commencement Concert Sunday

The University a cappella choir, directed by Lloyd Oakland, and the symphony orchestra, conducted by Eugene Andrie, will present a commencement concert Sunday, June 8, at 3 p.m. in the Student Union auditorium. The choir will sing "Ave Maria" by Victoria, "De Profundis" by Schubert, "Let Down the Bars, O Death" by Barber, "Quarens Me" by Berlioz, "Requiem" by Berlioz, the oratorio "Let Every Heart Be Merry" by Vecchi, "Las Agadadas (The Shake Down Song)" by Copland, and "Vocalise" by Tchaikovsky. The orchestra's program will include "Toccata" by Frescobaldi, "Adagio for Strings" by Barber, and selected pieces from American Folk Tunes (Smoky Mountain, Sandy Lands, Down in Lonesome Valley, and Father Britches) by McKay.

At the annual Awards Convocation this morning the prizes and awards were given to 47 students in recognition of their excellent academic work.

Some awards in the School of Law have already been made. James O. Tingle was awarded a fellowship carrying a stipend of $1800 in the University of Michigan Law School. Dominic King has been chosen as Clerk of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in the Ninth District. The Justin Miller prize in law of a $100 United States Savings Bond for the best comment in the Montana Law Review for the year 1951 was awarded to Gene A. Picotte.

The Montana State University Scholarships awards are yet to be made. Approximately 160 State University scholarships are to be awarded for the next academic year. These selections are to be awarded for the next academic year. These selections are made in the last week in June. The scholarships are one year appointments and carry exemption from the registration and incidental fee for the three quarters ($60).

MSU Extra-Active In Sunny Spring Parade

MSU students tried everything but the numbers racket and bookies to find out the true time of Aber Day. Chairman Bob Cooney kept the good news null and void until only two days remained before the May 1 deadline. Weather prognosticators were ridiculed when the sun shone brilliantly even before the majority of North Hall was awake. Dan Lambros, Don Cameron, Jamie Brennan and Mary Jo Tascher won top spots in the Aber Day primary. They went on to win top ASMSU offices in a unique election the next week.

This is a scale model of the Women's Center, the fourth MSU building to be started this year. The ground breaking ceremony will take place next Monday. Construction work will begin soon after the ceremony. The new Women's Center will be located north of the Natural Science building at the old tennis courts site. Contracts totaling $553,230 for the building were let by the state board of examiners to three Missoula contractors last Tuesday.

Karen Whittet, Montana's sixth Miss Montana, was crowned at the Coronation ball by the 1951 winner, Pat McGinty. Right, George Ostrom, Interfraternity council president, ASMSU president Bill Reynolds, and Jerry Britton, master of ceremonies, look on. Miss Whittet was chosen to represent Montana in the Atlantic City pageant for her piano artistry, beauty, and personality. The five finalists were Jeanne Couture, Bobbe Hanson, Virginia Harkins, Berta Hueble and Donna Nooney. Marjorie Lovberg was chosen by the contestants as Miss Congeniality.

Washington—After a conference of company and union officials yesterday a government spokesman said more progress was made than ever before in attempts to settle the steel dispute.

Philadelphia—Jersey Joe Walcott won a unanimous decision over Ezzard Charles last night to retain his world's heavyweight boxing title.

The Walcott victory kept Charles from becoming the first heavyweight in history to regain the world's championship.

Washington—The national campaign manager for General Eisenhower, Senator Frank Carlson of Kansas, says Eisenhower converted some national convention delegates of Senator Taft in informal discussions yesterday. He didn't name them.

Washington—Senator Robert Taft says it seems to him that Eisenhower's statements since he returned from Europe have dealt largely with "generalities." He also said Air Force strength deteriorated while Ike was chief-of-staff.

Grads Bid Adieu to MSU Central Board Okays New General Fund Budget

BY PAT SCHWARZ

Senior week activities, in full swing this week end, will be climaxed by the 55th annual commencement Monday at 2 p.m. in the Student Union auditorium. Admission will be by ticket only. Prizes and awards convocation at 9:30 this morning began the schedule of senior week events.

Seniors, their friends, and relatives will attend the commencement banquet tomorrow evening at 6, followed by a band concert on the oval at 7:30 and the final SOS of the year at 8:30. All University women will participate in the Lantern Parade on the oval at 9 p.m. at which time officers of AWS will be installed.

The commencement dance in the Gold room after the Lantern Parade will be open to everyone, free of charge. The Moon Moods will play for the annual dance, and intermission entertainment will be provided by the Jubileers.

Art Exhibit

An art exhibition in the Women's Club-Art building and a museum exhibit on the third floor of the Journalism building is scheduled for 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. Sunday. Students, seniors, parents, and friends are invited to attend a concert given by the a cappella choir and symphony orchestra at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union auditorium.

The choir will present one of the first Northwest performances of Robert Elmore's "Vocalise" for chorus and piano. Bernice Ramskill of the music school faculty will play the piano score. Samuel Barber's "Adagio for Strings" will be performed by the orchestra, as well as McKay's "Folk Tune Suite." The concert will last an hour. Lloyd Oakland and Eugene Andrie are in charge.

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate service is Sunday evening at 8 in the auditorium. Bishop Henry H. Daniels, Diocese of Montana, Episcopal church, will deliver the address, entitled "A Question for Graduates."

The Rev. E. Ray Cameron will give the invocation and the benediction, and the Rev. Roderick W. Johnson will give the scripture reading. The a cappella choir, under the direction of Lloyd Oakland, will sing, accompanied by Mrs. DeLoss Smith at the organ.

Following commencement Monday, the public is welcome to attend a reception at 3:45 in the Gold room. Those who are unable to attend commencement will be able to meet the speakers and the members of the graduating class at this time.

Butte Students Get Suspension

Robert Bennie, Emmet Cronnelly, John Stajcar, and George Vucurovich were suspended from the University yesterday. The four Butte students are awaiting trial on the charge of burglary of a local gas station.

The suspension was the official University action upon the recommendation of Dean of Men H. J. Wunderlich, and the proposal of the Social Standards committee.

The suspension carries until the end of fall quarter, 1952, at which time the four men may apply for re-entrance by petition.

Women's Center Groundbreaking Will be Monday

Ground will be broken Monday morning for the new Women's Center, the fourth building on the 1952 MSU construction schedule.

Dr. S. C. Scheuch, a member of the original MSU faculty, will turn the first shovelful of dirt and deliver the main address. Other speakers will be: Pres. Carl McFarland; Miss Helen Gleason, chairman of the home economics department; and Dr. Agnes Stoodley, head of women's physical education.

Dr. R. H. Jesse, vice-president of MSU will act as master of ceremonies. The program will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the site east of the Business Administration building.

Construction will begin immediately on the new building, which will house home economics and women's physical education.

Fraser Picked As Head of Forum Group

Bob Fraser, Billings, was selected as the Montana Forum committee's 1952-53 chairman at the group's luncheon meeting yesterday. He replaces Tom Ambrose, Eureka, as the committee's head.

Mary Joan Tascher, Missoula, replaced Pat Pattison, Glasgow, as secretary of the student-faculty group at the beginning of spring quarter.

The Forum committee, which was formed several years ago in order to "promote student thinking on matters of current concern," works through the office of the senior academic dean, and is listed as a faculty committee, although it has a student chairman. The membership of about 20 is divided between students and faculty.

The committee sponsored four public panel discussions this school year. The last presentation was a discussion of the Industrial Health petition question in Montana. Other forum topics were "Is 'McCarthyism' the Way to Protect Democracy?", "The Younger Generation—The Age of Apathy?", and "Juvenile Delinquency—Its Treatment."

Also discussed at yesterday's meeting was the selection of new committee members who will be announced next fall. Graduating seniors and graduate students leaving the committee include Ambrose, Don Graff, Laurel; Stan Spangler, Billings; Jackie Perry, Butte; and Miss Pattison.

Bishop Daniels Sets Question

Bishop Henry H. Daniels, of the Montana Diocese of the Episcopal Church, will address graduating seniors at Baccalaureate services Sunday evening. Bishop Daniels will speak on "A Question for Graduates."

The services will open with an organ prelude and a processional march, played by Mrs. DeLoss Smith.

The Reverend E. Ray Cameron will give the invocation, followed by two hymns by the MSU a cappella choir, under the direction of Lloyd Oakland.

Bishop Daniels' address will follow scripture reading by The Reverend Roderick W. Johnson.

The Reverend Mr. Cameron will deliver the benediction, followed by the recessional, played by Mrs. Smith.

MSU Song Groups To Be Broadcast

Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Gamma, Delta Delta Delta, and Sigma Nu singing groups have been tape-recorded during the past two weeks by the Public Service division.

These tapes will be broadcast by the major radio stations throughout Montana during July.

Students Needed As Cavern Guides

Mr. B. L. Gewalt, acting director of the Montana State park commission, notified the Placement bureau recently that students are needed as guides at Lewis and Clark Caverns State park near Whitehall.

The job lasts during the months of July and August and pays $200 a month for six days a week, eight hours a day. Bonuses will also be paid to guides making after-hour tours.

Sleeping accommodations are offered free at the park and meals can be secured for a nominal fee at the park concessions building adjacent to the park headquarters building. For further information students interested should contact the Placement bureau.

'Rain' Last Film In Society Series

With the showing of "Rain", Sunday, the University Film society completes its schedule for the year. The movie stars Walter Huston and Joan Crawford, both Academy Award winners.

"Rain" is the story of Sadie Thompson, a fugitive from the red-light district of Honolulu, and missionary Alfred Davidson. It is the oldest film on the society schedule this year, being made in 1932.

The film society will not operate as usual during summer quarter. The expected enrollment is not large enough to support the program.

budget, as passed by Central board last month. The budget approved yesterday states the manner in which this 6 per cent will be spent.

The general fund budget is as follows:

|                          |       |
|--------------------------|-------|
| Clerical expense         | $ 12 |
| Office supplies          | 6     |
| 'M' book                 | 35    |
| ASMSU ballots            | 12    |
| Activity tickets         | 8     |
| Aber day                 | 130   |
| Central board banquet    | 5     |
| Convention travel        | 25    |
| Chamber of Commerce dues | 3     |
| Miscellaneous            | 5     |
| Special appropriations;  |       |
| Traditions board         | 25    |
| Commencement             | 10    |
| Social Committee         | 10    |

The budget was passed with understanding that money would be appropriated next fall for Blanket awards.

The board moved to amend the controversial by-law dealing with qualifications for Publications board chairman. From now on, the chairman must be either a journalism major or a former member of Publications board, with junior or senior standings.

Former Central board members were awarded scrolls as certification of service to ASMSU. Danny Lambros, ASMSU president, presented the scrolls to Bill Reynolds, former president, who distributed them.

Prizes Awarded

Three students in the pharmacy school have won awards which will not be presented at the award convocation.

Merk and Company awarded textbooks, the Merk manual and the Merk index to Harold Blanchard Powersville, Mo., and Berna Sutliff, Livingston. Bristol Laboratories, Inc., awarded the Bristol drug encyclopedia to Mary Joy Quinn of Missoula.

Short, But Sweet . . .

Space is short and so is time. Considering both and still looking back over the past quarter and the final gust of copy the Kaimin staff wishes to say:

- Congratulations to the seniors.
- A happy summer to the student body and the faculty.
- We'll see you next fall along with Bibler, campus color, good coverage, and renewed energy.—The Kaimin staff.

Sample Album of School Songs in SU; Orders Can be Placed

Sample recordings of the soon-to-be-released album "Singing on the Steps" are now available in the Yrile Van Duser's office at the Student Union according to A. C. Cogswell, director of the public service division.

This album contains recordings of MSU's a cappella choir, Symphonic band and Symphony orchestra, and the Sinfonia chorus. These records were made by the public service division and the Pacific Sound Recording company of Spokane on RCA records.

The eight selections include: "Montana," "Fight Montana," "Up With Montana," "Old College Chums," "Montana, My Montana," "Port Royal (suite for strings, first movement)," "Lohengrin (introduction to Act III)," and "Ave Maria."

Cogswell expects the first 500 copies of the album to arrive within the next two weeks. Some of them have been spoken for by alumni but the larger part of the order is still available to the public. Orders may be placed at the SU business office, he said. As soon as the albums arrive, they will be shipped prepaid to the orderer he stated.

Succeeding lots will arrive faster, he said, now that the preliminary work is completed.

GRADES WILL BE SENT THOSE LEAVING ENVELOPES

Registrar Leo Smith said yesterday that students wanting their spring quarter grades sent to them should leave self-addressed, stamped envelopes at window No. 5 in Main hall before leaving the campus.

Eileen Polk Selected New Coed Colonel

Eileen Polk, Williston, N. D., has been selected to serve as coed colonel for the ROTC Sponsor corps next year. Miss Polk was selected from among the four junior sponsors by vote of the advanced Air Force and Army ROTC students. She succeeds Joyce Frigaard, Anaconda.

Membership in the sponsor corps is limited to 38 girls, one senior, the coed colonel, four juniors, eight sophomores and 25 freshmen.

Each spring the four juniors and the coed colonel select from among the sophomores who will serve during their junior year. The coed colonel, junior and sophomore sponsors, join in selecting eight girls from among the freshman sponsors to serve in the sponsor corps during their sophomore year.

The selections for junior and sophomore sponsors have already been made, but the names of the girls chosen will not be announced until next fall. During fall quarter the Sponsor corps will select 25 freshman coed sponsors.

New Bear Paws Selected Under Revamped System

The Bear Paws completed interviews last night determining which sophomore men will be tapped for the service organization at the first SOS next fall, Neal McCurdy, chief Grizzly, announced yesterday. The Bear Paws have been holding interviews with Bear Paw applicants for two weeks now, in accordance with a system that was inaugurated this year. The system has been working satisfactorily, McCurdy said, with only a few minor changes from the original method.

"The new system was set up to eradicate fraternity pull in the selection of new members," he said, "but this year there were so few independent applicants that the organization is bound to be weighted down with fraternity men." McCurdy said that nothing could be done about it if the unaffiliated men did not have either the interest or ambition to apply.

McCurdy expressed thanks to his fellow Bear Paws for the work they have done in establishing the new selection system.

Athletic Allotment Down 14,000 From This Year

Budget of about $89,000 was set up by athletic board for athletic activities at MSU Wednesday afternoon. This is a reduction from the approximate $103,600 budget of last year.

This year's budget is relatively in comparison to the other teams, according to E. K. Key, university auditor. Other teams' budgets run well past $100. The estimated expenditures for the different sports in 1953 will be: football, $37,470; basketball, $11,600; track, $4,640; baseball, $2,750; swimming, $900; tennis, $1,100; and golf, $775.

One of the other decisions of the athletic board was the approval of the M's to the ski team. This is to be a major sport in the future, not a minor sport as reported in yesterday's Kaimin. The ski team will compete in the Skyline conference, if they get an appropriation from the budget.

At the meeting Wednesday no funds were appropriated to the ski team, but something may be done next year. The skiers this year had a small appropriation from the general fund, but otherwise paid their own expenses. The ski team will need an estimated $800 to operate next year.

There was discussion at the meeting of eliminating swimming or golf to provide funds for the ski team, but since no one was there to represent the swimmers or golfers discussion was deferred until next year.

Money for this year's M blankets, which will be awarded by Jiggs Dahlberg, came from the general fund and not the athletic budget. It was suggested that the money for the blankets come from the athletic budget next year.

BUSINESS SENIORS INVITED TO ATTEND OPEN HOUSE

All seniors in the School of Business, their parents, and their families, are invited to an open house at the Business Administration building Monday morning, according to Lew Penwell, Billings.

The open house will last from 10 o'clock till noon.

Track Team Loses Six By Graduation

BY BOB CHESNOVER

With the loss of six seniors from this year's track squad, the University team will be down next year in comparison to this year's performances. "We will not be quite as strong next year, but we have a good chance of remaining in the upper division of the Skyline conference," says Coach Adams. Adams also feels the squad won't be as strong in dual meets.

The seniors are John Badgley, Bob Ripke, Joe Luckman, Mike Fleming, Bill Reynolds, and Jack Rothwell. Rothwell still has a year of football eligibility left, though.

These seniors did quite a bit of the scoring for the Grizzlies this year, and will be sorely missed. The case of scoring was just the opposite at Utah State and BYU where freshmen and sophomores did much of their scoring. Good examples are in the sprints, shot put, hurdles, discus, and broad jump.

"The members of the squad did a very good job, considering handicaps," says Adams, "and most of them performed up to their present capacity and some did better."

Adams expects much from Leon Conner, Rich Johnson, Bob Beach, Neil Hunter, Bob Hudson, Mickey Luckman, and Hal Maus. Adams feels that Rich Johnson did very well this year, considering this is his first year in college competition. Adams also expects Neil Hunter to compete more next year; his studies interfering too much this year.

Doug Delaney, a pole vaulter; Dick Lindsay, a hurdler; Bill Gue, Jim Haslip, and Don Brant, sprinters, are all freshmen who should do better next year.

Over a number of years, Adams feels that John Badgley is the most improved man on the squad.

JOHN BADGLEY VOTED MOST VALUABLE TRACKMAN

John Badgley, the Grizzlies' ace hurdler, was voted as the most valuable member of the track team by his teammates yesterday. This award was began this year by Phi Epsilon Kappa, men's physical education fraternity, and is given to the most valuable player in each sport.

Baseball Team Expected To Be Better Next Year

BY JACK ZYGMOND

If the crowds that attended the Grizzly home baseball games give some indication as to how much they like the caliber of play seen here, then overflow crowds should pack Campbell park next season to watch the Grizzlies do battle in another skyline season.

This should be so, because the caliber of play of all Western division teams next year promises to be far above that seen here this past year. This season every club had a predominately under-classmen studded squad, and many of them will be returning with an added year of baseball seasoning.

Montana follows that general line to the wire. They lose only three by graduation: captain Jim Martin, Bobby Byrne and Hal Sherbeck. Thirteen other lettermen are returning in 1953.

Probably the hardest position to fill will be the centerfield position, covered so well by Bobby Byrne in three years of baseball competition. A strong consistent hitter, Byrne's departure for Class A baseball (errored here yesterday) leaves that position wide open next year.

At shortstop, young Jim Duford is expected to see much action. An understudy to Hal Sherbeck all season long, Duford came into his own in the Kalispell Chief game, his first and only start of the year. If he lacked anything this season, Grizzly coaches say it was confidence and game experience should instill that important asset.

Around the rest of the infield, the situation is very favorable. Anderson and Streeter are available for catching, Olson and Clark at first base, Snippen and Sammy Davis at second base, and Carl Rhonke at third. Some of these players may see action in the outfield as well, a possible Montana weakspot next season.

Jim Murray returns for another year, and hard hitting pitcher Gene Carlson may be called on to see extensive duty in the outfield to give the Grizzlies additional hitting power.

A flock of experienced moundmen return to do battle in Western division play. Other than Carlson, returning are Marshall, Taber, Hansen, Roots, and "Red" Johnston.

Again Utah and BYU should offer the Grizzlies stiff competition. Utah coach Pete Carlston has—like Montana—an experienced mound staff returning. Back will be Neil Astle, the Utah freshman who twice beat the Grizzlies, the big one of course—the playoff contest. Other mound returnees are Gary Hunt, a former Utah high school star, and Basil Williams and Vic Stuckenschneider. Williams lost the 6-3 contest to BYU that gave Brigham Young the Western division title.

Gene Carlson and Don Olson will captain the Grizzlies next year.

Male drivers in 1951 were involved in 90 per cent of all U. S. auto accidents.

Prospects for Next Year's Basketball Team Are Good

BY JIM LARCOMBE

Prospects for next year's basketball team look very good, according to coach Jiggs Dahlberg. Dahlberg only lost four men by graduation this year—Bob Sparks, Hal Sherbeck, Dick Anderson and Bob Byrne. Sparks and Sherbeck were the only starters.

Of this year's first five, Chuck Davis, Dale Johnson, and Ed Anderson will be back with the Grizzlies next season. Dahlberg's team will be strong in experienced reserves too, with Dick Trinastich, Don Nickel, Jim McNaney, Mick Luckman, Rich Johnson, and Bud Bellis seeing plenty of action.

Up from this year's freshman squad will be the following numerical winners: Larry Anderson, Don Chaney, Robert Dantic, Bill Kann, George Samuelson, Travis Reymen, and Don Welch. These men should have an excellent chance to make the Grizzly team as freshmen will probably not be eligible next year.

The Grizzlies finished in fifth place this year, their first season of Skyline play. They were strong and respected contenders all the way through the season, finishing with a 7-7 record in Skyline play. In addition to conference play, they met Gonzaga, Washington State, Idaho State, and Montana State.

The Grizzlies averaged a little less than 60 points per game this year. In individual scoring, Chuck Davis led the way with 369 points, and a 14.8 average per game.

Ed Anderson was second in individual scoring with 236 points, and a 9.1 average. Sparks was third with 214 points and an 8.2 average. Captain Hal Sherbeck was in fourth place with 206 points and an 8 points per game average.

Captains for next year's squad will be Chuck Davis and Mick Luckman.

Swim Team Has Three Lettermen

Three lettermen will lead next year's University swimming team. Jack Daniels, Helmville; George Harpole, Arcadia, Calif.; and Bruce Ferguson, Missoula, are the lettermen who will form the nucleus of next year's tank team. Daniels is next year's captain.

Harpole is the distance swimmer for the Grizzlies, doing the 440 and the 1500 meter race. Bruce Ferguson, a freshman, competed in his first year of Skyline competition and should boost the squad next year. Daniels is a back stroke artist.

Bob Cooney, this year's captain, is the only member of the team being lost by graduation. Cooney has lettered in swimming for three years. He was the team's sprinter, swimming the 60 and 100 yard dash.

Fred Carl started on this year's squad but was declared ineligible. Carl attended Purdue university last year, thus losing his eligibility. Joor (pronounced Your) Bol did some swimming for the University this year, and with him and Carl to add depth to the squad, the Grizzly swimming team should do much better next year.

RADIO GUILD TO PICNIC

Radio guild members will meet this afternoon for a picnic. Past and present members will meet at Main hall at 4 o'clock and go from there to the Miller Creek picnic grounds.

Badgley Training For NCAA Meet

John Badgley is continuing to work out for the 400-meter hurdles race in the National Collegiate meet at Berkeley, Calif., June 13 and 14. Badgley will make the trip to Berkeley without Coach Harry Adams and will be on his own. This will be the first time that Adams has missed this meet with one of his men entered in it.

Badgley ran the 400-meter race earlier in the week in the time of 55.3 seconds. This was one of the few times he has run the entire race. The main difficulty that Badgley faces is his timing between the hurdles. In the 400-meter race there are about 15 steps between the hurdles, and in the low and high hurdles the steps are fewer. Many times in the history of the race, the time of 55.3 would have won the race, but that was in earlier times. Adams feels that if Badgley can cut his time down to 54 seconds, he may have a chance of placing fairly high in the meet.

Phi Delts Win Softball Title

The Phi Delts walked off with the intramural softball championship last night by defeating the Sigma Nus, 7-4, on the Clover bowl.

The Phi Delts scored their runs on walks and sharp singles, while the Sigma Nus got two of their's on a home run by Dick Bolte and two others on Bob Kirk's long fly that left-fielder Arne Jacobsen dropped.

The Phi Delts had 6 hits, 2 errors, while the Sigma Nus had 5 hits, 6 errors.

Football Forecast Fine Despite Graduation Loss

The outlook for the 1952 Grizzly football team is rather favorable. Although 10 men are lost by graduation, there will be 21 lettermen returning to Coach Ed Chinske's squad for practice September 2.

From appearances in spring practice and performances of past seasons, it appears as though next year's team will be strong in the line but comparatively weak in the backfield.

Some of the standout linemen that line coach John Zeger will be working with are Jim Murray, tackle and linebacker; Bob Antonich and Gordon Jones, guards; Bob Lamley, tackle; Dick Lindsay, center; and captain Hal Maus, Ed Anderson, and Frank Nickel, ends.

Some of the promising backs that will be back are quarterbacks Murdo Campbell and John Allen, fullbacks Fred Mirchoff, Bo Laird, and Gene Carlson, and halfback Bob Graves.

The addition of some junior college transfer students ought to help next year's team, also. They are quarterback John Allen, halfback Dean Brott and Hal Gompf, tackle Joe Deluca, and tight end Owen Deuchler.

The ten graduating lettermen are halfbacks Bob Byrne, Paul V. Hal Sherbeck, and Lloyd Thomsen; fullback Carol Mayte, tackles Leonard, Earl Merrill, Dave M. and Dick Reed, and end Dick Maw.
